

J.S. Bach
Cantata No. 195
Dem Gerechten muß das Licht

Vor der Trauung

Coro.
(Tempo giusto $\text{♩} = 72$)

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps) and 3/4 time. The music begins with a forte dynamic marking 'f'. The upper staff features a complex texture with sixteenth-note runs and chords, while the lower staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes.

The second system continues the musical piece with two staves. The notation is consistent with the first system, showing intricate sixteenth-note patterns in the upper voice and a steady accompaniment in the lower voice.

The third system of musical notation shows the continuation of the Coro movement. The upper staff has a dense texture of sixteenth notes, and the lower staff maintains the rhythmic foundation.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the piece. The upper staff features a series of sixteenth-note chords and runs, while the lower staff has a more melodic line with some rests.

The fifth and final system of musical notation on this page. It concludes the Coro movement with a final cadence in the upper staff and a sustained accompaniment in the lower staff.

The image shows a page of a musical score for J.S. Bach's Cantata No. 195. It features a vocal line at the top and a keyboard accompaniment at the bottom. The vocal line consists of two staves with lyrics in German and English. The German lyrics are: "Freu - den from - men Her -", "Ge - rechten muss das Licht im - mer wieder aufge -", and "the righteous light is sown, light and glad-ness are scat -". The English lyrics are: "glad - ness for them who fear -", "the righteous light is sown, light and glad-ness are scat -". The keyboard accompaniment is written for a grand piano and consists of two staves. The score is in G major and 4/4 time. The vocal line is in a soprano or alto voice. The keyboard accompaniment is in a grand piano. The page number 4 is at the bottom.

Coro.

(Allegro moderato $\text{♩} = 120$.)

First system of the musical score. It consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The piece begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a complex texture with sixteenth-note patterns and chords, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment with eighth notes.

Second system of the musical score. The right hand continues with intricate sixteenth-note passages. The left hand has a more active role with eighth-note patterns. A mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking appears in the second measure of this system.

Third system of the musical score. The right hand's sixteenth-note patterns become even more dense. The left hand maintains its accompaniment. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present in the final measure of this system.

Fifth system of the musical score. The right hand has a more chordal texture with sixteenth-note accompaniment. The left hand continues with eighth-note accompaniment. This system concludes with a double bar line.

The first system of the musical score consists of five staves. The top four staves are for vocal parts: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. The bottom staff is for the keyboard accompaniment, split into right and left hands. The music is in G major and 4/4 time. The vocal lines feature a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often with slurs. The keyboard accompaniment provides a rhythmic and harmonic foundation with various textures.

The second system of the musical score includes lyrics in German and English. It features the same vocal and keyboard parts as the first system. The lyrics are as follows:

- sen,	wir,	wir,	wir kommen, deine Heilig-
- ty,	here,	here,	we come to praise Thy ho-li-
- sen,	wir,	wir,	wir kommen, deine Heilig-
- ty,	here,	here,	we come to praise Thy ho-li-
- sen,	wir,	wir,	wir kommen, deine Heilig-

men, dei - ne - Hei - lig - keit, un - end - lich grosser Gott, zu
 - to praise Thy - ho - li - ness, e - ter - nal - Lord and God al -

The bottom staff of this system continues the keyboard accompaniment, showing more intricate patterns and textures.
